

Old Ravians Union – Elections

Rules and Regulations

Election Committee:

- The Executive Committee of the Old Ravians Union will constitute an Election Committee to hold and supervise the elections of different offices of the Union. The Election committee to be consisted of the three Old Ravians and one of them should be from judiciary.
- The Election Committee will take all necessary measures to hold fair and impartial elections of the Union.
- The Election Committee will have the power to amend or change the rules and regulations of elections of the Union if need arises.
- The Election Committee can reschedule the elections if it feels necessary for smooth conduct of election.

Working of Election Committee

1. Chairperson of the Election Committee will preside the meetings.
2. Chairperson will convene meeting of the Election Committee.
3. The Election Committee will announce the date and schedule of the elections. The Election Committee will notify the results of the elections.
4. Two members of the Election Committee will make quorum for a meeting.
5. Any two members of Election Committee can requisite meeting of the committee with a written request.
6. The role of Honorary Secretary is to assist and coordinate with the Election Committee.
7. One member to be nominated by Election Committee as a 'Resident Member' of the Election Committee and be empowered to make decisions on urgent matters from time to time. However, for such decisions approval of the Election Committee should be required.

8. Decision in meetings will be taken with consensus. In case of disagreement, the opinion of majority will prevail.
9. Schedule of the elections and Audit Report of the accounts of the Union will be sent through email and be placed at the website of the Union before two weeks of the election to bring in the notice of members.
10. Advertisement in order to hold elections will be given in four national newspapers.

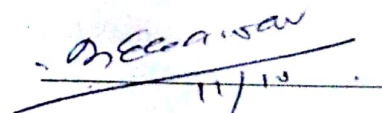

Rules for Candidates, Voters and Supporters

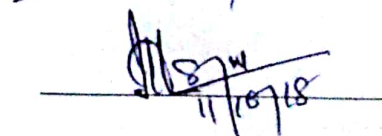

1. All the candidates and supporters will be discouraged to bring election related activities in the GCU Campus. All kinds of canvassing will be debarred in the campus to save the academic atmosphere of the University.
2. In case, a candidate does not follow any instruction or rules laid down by the Election Committee, his/her nomination papers can be rejected.
3. In case, a candidate maligns the GCU or its administration. The following actions could be recommended by the Election Committee to the Executive Committee of Union against him/her:
 - Banning of entry to GCU Campus.
 - Suspension/Cancellation of membership of the Union.

Mr. Abdus Salam Khawar
(Chairperson)

Dr. Ikram Ul Haq
(Member)

Dr. Ahmad Raza Khan
(Member)

11/11/18

11/10/18

